

Please do not approve BPL. Given the frequency range proposed, the proximity of power lines to all homes, and the ability of power lines to act as "antennas" for signals, BPL will almost certainly become a source of untold interference to HF amateur radio operations. Amateur radio operators will not be able to fulfill our duties if we cannot clearly receive signals on the HF spectrum.